

Coombe Dingle Nursing Home

“...Everyone in the care team recognises, supports and celebrates each person’s individuality...”

Alpha Care Caterham Ltd owns Coombe Dingle Nursing Home, a family business committed to highest possible quality of personal care and service. Providing an environment that feels as close to home as possible within a warm and pleasant atmosphere.

Coombe Dingle Nursing Home is a spacious detached house situated in a quite cul-de-sac opposite Queens Park in Caterham-On-Hill providing the highest standards of nursing care and service to residents suffering from mild to moderate dementia as a result of Alzheimer’s Disease or other mental conditions for elderly.

Our philosophy is to provide person centred care, tailored to suite and respect the needs of the individuals, so that quality of care is received with dignity and choice. Through our philosophy of Care, Comfort and Consideration, Coombe Dingle aims to be the first choice for dementia care in the local community with the provision of quality services.

Our personal services are provided within warm, clean, attractive and homely environment. The catering, housekeeping and laundry teams ensure a high standard of service in either single or companion room, many with en suite facilities.

There are a variety of activities organised by a dedicated Activities Co-ordinator and by staff for the residents’ recreation.
